Before you book

- Prices: [single-session price and any package total, shown separately; tax treatment if relevant and verified].
- Access and comfort: ask about practical access or comfort needs at [Contact].
- Booking: book at [Booking link]. Your booking is confirmed when [confirmation step].
- Changes and refunds: read [Policy link] before you pay.
- These are nonclinical wellness services. No outcome is promised, and they do not replace care from a qualified health professional.

PRACTITIONER INSTRUCTIONS · REMOVE BEFORE PUBLISHING

Editing the service menu

Present a small number of services with clear duration, price, inclusions, and booking steps. Avoid promises about disease treatment or guaranteed results.

EXAMPLE ENTRY

Example entry: Introductory wellness session | [duration] | [price]. A nonclinical session with time to discuss what will happen and your practical preferences. Choose no touch or discuss any proposed touch before deciding. Book at [link] or contact [practice contact] with questions.

Customization and quality check

Use neutral service names and actual inclusions. Do not use "treatment for anxiety," "detox," or a medical credential the practitioner does not hold. Remove unused service slots. Check every link and price against the booking platform after editing.

Each entry needs

- Name; factual description; duration; price/currency; what is included; setting; adult-only scope where applicable.
- Three service slots maximum. Distinguish the single-session price from any package total.
- A link to cancellation/refund information before payment, and a nonclinical service statement with no-outcome-promise wording.

Customization checklist
